17 The defendant Crystal Poole made her initial appearance on May 18, 2012 before this 18 Court and was released on an unsecured bond. On September 7, 2012, Ms. Poole entered a
19 guilty plea to three counts of the charged superseding indictment before the Honorable Susan
20 Illston. Sentencing in Ms. Poole's matter is scheduled for December 14, 2012.

21 In this stipulated order, counsel for Ms. Poole represents that her plea of guilt was 22 immediately reported in the local press. Ms. Poole's employer then terminated her.

23 Because she is not now employed and does not have the resources to continue to reside
24 in the Bay area, Ms. Poole respectfully requests that her conditions of pretrial release be 25 modified to permit her to reside with her mother in Jackson, Mississippi, until her sentencing
26 and self-surrender into custody. Neither Pretrial Services nor the government objects to this

1 request.

2 Therefore, for good cause shown Ms. Poole's conditions of pretrial release are modified
3 as follows:

- 4 1. Ms. Poole shall reside with her mother, Ms. Pearlle Peterson, at 938 Arbor Vista Blvd.
5 in Jackson, Mississippi;
- 6 2. Ms. Poole shall provide her supervising Pretrial Office with the telephone number for 7 that residence, and shall keep Pretrial Services apprised of any changes in that number;
- 8 3. Ms. Poole shall be permitted to travel between Jackson, Mississippi, and the Northern 9 District of California and within the Northern and Southern Districts of Mississippi, but 10 shall only reside with her mother in Jackson, Mississippi;
- 11 4. Ms. Poole shall provide to Pretrial Services an itinerary of any travel between 12 Mississippi and the Northern District of California at least forty-eight hours in advance;
- 13 5. Upon transfer of supervision to Pretrial Services for the Southern District of 14 Mississippi, Ms. Poole shall contact and then be interviewed and monitored by, that 15 office;
- 16 6. This order shall remain in effect until sentencing. Ms. Poole's ability to self-surrender,
17 and conditions of release pending self-surrender, will be determined by District Judge
18 Illston;
